ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

She was born in a traveling troupe of performers known as The Gleaming Chain, a roving carnival famed for illusions, daring acrobatics, and enchanting music. From childhood, she was raised on the road — learning not only the lute and flute, but how to read a room, stir an audience, and lie with charm instead of malice.

One night, while performing in a remote border town, her quick thinking and silver tongue prevented a noble's scandal from erupting into bloodshed. Rumors say she outwitted a duke and seduced a spy in the same night — only she knows the truth.

But the troupe disbanded under mysterious
