ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Born in the craggy heights of the Stonehammer Clans, he was once a respected leatherworker, known for crafting battle-ready gear that blended function with artisan pride. His shop in the dwarven trade city of Khundrath bustled with demand from mercenaries, nobles, and adventurers alike—until the market dried up and the coin stopped flowing.

Desperate to keep his craft alive, he turned to the wrong people for loans—shady underworld financiers who saw more value in his strong arms than his craft. When the debts came due, and his pride refused to hand over his tools or betray a client's trust, he was forced to flee in the night. Marked and exiled, he left behind his shop, his guild, and the only home he'd ever known.

Now a wandering barbarian, Tharnak has traded his needle and thread for axe and fury, earning gold the hard way: dungeon-delving, beast-hunting, and mercenary work. Beneath his rough exterior lies a craftsman's soul, still dreaming of the day he'll return to Khundrath—not as a debtor, but as a legend.
He doesn't just fight to survive—he fights to rebuild.
