SYMBOL

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

He was born into the prestigious House Thorne, a noble family known for their unwavering service to the realm and strict code of honor. Trained in swordplay, history, and divine law from a young age, he was being groomed for command — a shining example of chivalry and devotion.

Everything changed when a red dragon razed his ancestral town. he barely of age, took up arms alongside his family's knights. Though he could not defeat the dragon, he saved dozens from the flames, shielding children in a chapel and leading survivors to safety through smoke and rubble. His bravery became the stuff of local legend.

The destruction marked him forever. With his homeland in ruins and his family scattered or slain, he vowed to uphold the ideals of the noble knights — not just for prestige, but to protect the innocent and punish the wicked. Now a paladin sworn to justice and guided by divine conviction, he seeks the dragon that destroyed his home, and to ensure no other village suffers as his did.
