ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Born to the wrong shade of skin in a society ruled by light and pride, she never stood a chance among the high elves. Treated as an outcast and branded a threat for the mere accident of their bloodline, they were cast out — not just from a city, but from an entire culture that refused to see past prejudice.

Exile led them deep into the Underdark, where mercy was as rare as sunlight. Down there, she learned to survive the only way possible: through cunning, speed, and cold steel. They stole from the strong, tricked the foolish, and killed when cornered — not out of malice, but necessity. In time, they came to embrace the law of the wilds: only the capable endure.

Now, she walks the surface once again, trading shadow for twilight in the uneasy safety of the city. They are a ghost among crowds, a whisper in alleyways, always watching, always calculating. The hatred they carry for the high elves simmers beneath a cool exterior, not forgotten — only waiting.
